

Beauty is Health that shows!

Immerse yourself in a pampering session, or undergo a slimming treatment with Phytobiodermie®, which effectively rebalances vital energy for better results as well as an enhanced sense of well-being. Treatments can be carried out simply using the Phyto 5® products, or can also be used in conjunction with our exclusive equipment, to promote the rebalance of your vital energy distribution and to stimulate fluids, which will improve the overall appearance of your skin.

Violet clay balancing wrap

Phytobiodermie®'s signature treatment rebalances your vital energy and immediately improves your skin's appearance.

Energetic drainage

This unique treatment from Phytobiodermie® uses exclusive equipment that stimulates and balances your vital energy and body fluids using visible light therapy (chromotherapy).

Slimming treatments

This series of treatments that detoxifies, slims and tones is a Phytobiodermie® speciality using product lines and Phyto-energetic equipment. The treatments give effective results naturally and holistically.

Anti-Aging, hydrating and toning

Our amazing colored clay masks rich in essential oils along with other algae-based ingredients that are bursting with minerals are the perfect solution when it comes to effective anti-aging body treatments, improving the skin's tone and natural appearance.
